Locus

A locus is the set of all points satisfying a given rule.

For example, a circle is the locus of points which are a fixed distance from a fixed point, and an ellipse is the locus of points P which satisfy $PA + PB = c$, where A and B are fixed points and c is a constant with $c > 2AB$.

The plural of locus is loci.